Community survey

Autumn

Spring

School holidays

Scotland Island and West Pittwater reliability project

Thank you for your interest in the Scotland Island and West 4. When occupied, how many people generally live at your Pittwater reliability project and taking the time to complete property? this short form. To help us prepare several feasible options for further 5. What best describes your household's energy use? discussion, we are seeking input on a range of topics related Residential to your household usage and devices. Residential and business Please submit your responses by 24 March 2017. If you would Business (please specify business type if relevant) like additional information or require more time, please contact us on 1800 604 765. Contact details Outages Name: 6. To ensure continuous supply during an unplanned outage while we work to restore power, would you be willing to reduce your electricity usage? Yes Address: Nο Maybe (please detail) Email: Phone: 7. Are you comfortable with Ausgrid considering alternate energy/battery storage options to provide power during an * Your details will only be used for the purpose of recording feedback unplanned outage? and to engage with you during the project. Yes This information is collected and stored in accordance with Ausgrid's No Privacy Policy, available at www.ausgrid.com.au/privacy Maybe (please detail) Living/working in the area 1. Where do you live? Scotland Island West Pittwater 8a. Would you consider a potential community shared option using alternate energy/battery storage (to provide power 2. Approximately what percentage of the year do you spend during an unplanned outage)? living in either Scotland Island or West Pittwater? Yes 25% (10-13 weeks) or less 50% (26 weeks) 75% (39 weeks) Maybe (please detail) 100% (52 weeks) 8b. If yes, would you consider hosting a community shared 3. If a non-permanent resident, is there a particular time of option on your property, e.g household battery, solar panels? year or of the week you generally spend time in this area(tick all that apply)? Yes Winter Weekends No Summer Weekdays Maybe

Please turn over the page.

Community feedback form

Scotland Island and West Pittwater reliability project

Energy Use	Your feedback
9. What is your main type of hot water system (select one)? Electric storage Other (please specify)	14. Is there any local information that Ausgrid should consider as part of the planning of this project?
10. What type/s of heating/cooling do you use in the home? (Tick all that apply)
Reverse cycle air conditioning Evaporative coolers Fans Plug-in electric heaters Electric heaters (other) Gas Wood Other (please specify) 11. Do you have, or would you consider implementing any of	15. Do you have any suggestions/comments for Ausgrid at this stage of the project planning process?
the following energy saving devices? (Tick all that apply) Have already Would consider implementing Heat pump or solar hot water system Solar panels Energy efficient lighting Energy efficient heating/cooling appliances Other (please specify)
12. Does your property have a time of use meter?
Yes No Don't know	The feedback currently being requested, will assist Ausgrid confirm the feasibility of several options being assessed. Ausgrid will present these options for further comment at local community sessions planned for mid-2017. A summary
Communication	of community feedback received and how it has been considered will also be prepared and published on the project
13. What is your preferred method for communication?	web page.
Online Letter Visit/meetings Community group Email Other (please specify) Telephone	To return this survey, or for any queries, please contact us at the details below: Scotland Island and West Pittwater reliability project

Attention: Michelle Dooley

or email to majorprojects@ausgrid.com.au.

Ausgrid GPO Box 4009 Sydney NSW 2001